Lexington County Probate Court to accept marriage license applications by mail

Marriage Applications/Licenses:

The Lexington County Judicial Center is now closed to the public. Until further notice - and for the health, safety and convenience of the public - Marriage License Applications will be taken by the Probate Court by mail. Please find the link for the Marriage Application below:

Marriage License Application

If you have already applied and need your marriage license please call the Probate Court at (803) 785-8324 and we can either mail it to you or leave it to be picked up at the drive thru at the Clerk of Court's office.

If you have any other marriage license questions you may e-mail jchen@lex-co.com AND tcovell@lex-co.com.

Filings:

At this time filings can be done by mail or by dropping them off at the drive-thru window at the Clerk of Court's office. The clocked copies will then be mailed to you or can be picked up at the Clerk of Court's drive thru after we have notified you that they are available for pick up.

For Estate filing questions call (803) 785-8324 or (803) 785-8302, or e-mail to both lswilliams@lex-co.com and jdunham@lex-co.com.

For Guardianship/Conservatorship filing questions call (803)785-8328 or (803) 785-5015, or e-mail both abowright@lex-co.com AND lwillverd@lex-co.com.

Mental Health/Chemical Dependency

For Mental Health/Chemical Dependency questions – call (803) 785-8325 or (803) 785-5015, or e-mail both oboyd@lex-co.com and rkennedy@lex-co.com.
