Lexington County Clerk of Court's Office encourages residents to utilize drive-through window

Lexington, S.C. - In an effort to help stop the spread of the virus, the Lexington County Clerk of Court encourages residents to submit child-support payments, fines, fees and paper filings for circuit and family courts at the drive through window of the Marc H. Westbrook Judicial Center, located at 205 East Main St., Lexington, S.C. 29072.

Additionally, the Clerk of Court's Office will be accepting filings on behalf of the Probate Court through the drive-through window.

County of Lexington officials are closely monitoring the impacts of the COVID-19 coronavirus throughout the community. We urge that all of our employees, residents and visitors follow these hygienic habits to help prevent the spread of the coronavirus and flu:

- Wash hands often
- Avoid touching eyes, nose, or mouth with unwashed hands
- Avoid contact with sick people
- Stay at home if you are sick and avoid others
- Cover your mouth and nose with a tissue or sleeve when coughing or sneezing

The County of Lexington will continue to provide essential services to the County's residents, but may adjust how such services are provided. Should conditions change, the County will update local media and its residents through social media channels and on the County's website
