

Court Administration

Here, you can get a list of all Clerks and Registers with phone numbers, addresses and email addresses. This will help you to contact neighboring counties with questions you may have. Also available are Self Help Resources and SC Bar Association Public Services.

SC Legislature

Here, you can find a great deal of information regarding Code of Laws and track legislation, among other things.

Secretary of State

This site offers information on UCC's and Notary Public information, among other things.

SC Department of Revenue

This site will be able to answer many of your questions regarding deed recording affidavits and exceptions.

Property Records Industry Association \(PRIA\)

This site offers information concerning national standards for the property records industry.

SC Association of Clerks and Registers of Deeds

There are many helpful links on this site including the member roster, committee listings with chairpersons and members and announcements for conferences, etc.